Subject: Educational Services for Students Who Become Pregnant

The New York State Education Law requires that minors from ages six (6) to sixteen (16) attend full time day instruction and that resident pupils over five (5) and under twenty-one (21) are entitled to attend school in the district in which they reside. The law further requires that a school district provide for this instruction and also to provide for home instruction for those students of legal age who are unable to profit from instruction in school.

In view of the above, the Superintendent of Schools shall provide instruction as required by the New York State Education law for students who become pregnant. The Superintendent, or his/her designee, is directed to consult with the school physician and the student's personal physician in determining the form of instruction.

The form of instruction may be any of the following or a combination of the following:

- a) Remain in school with provisions for special instruction, scheduling, and counseling where needed.
- b) Receive home instruction.
