Subject: Curriculum Resources

Many resources for curriculum development are available within the Williamson School District. The instructional staff, under the guidance of the administration, is expected to use available resources for improvement of the instructional program. Each teacher is responsible for initiating improvement, as well as reacting to changing conditions. Building principals shall be involved in curriculum development.

Recommendations from appointed curriculum study committees and other staff shall be submitted by the Superintendent to the Board of Education for consideration in the development of curriculum policy.
