Subject: Home Instruction (Permanent Instruction)

From time to time, parents will choose to instruct their children at home. The School District will attempt to cooperate with parents who wish to provide home schooling for their children realizing that the child who is educated at home should receive an education in a manner consistent with an educational plan and at least substantially equivalent to that given to minors of like age and attainments in the local public school. The required subjects should be taught in a competent, systematic, and sequential manner, specifically in relation to the basic core curriculum of reading, mathematics, and writing.

The Superintendent shall develop appropriate regulations and procedures.
