Prior to the June 19, 2013 Board of Education meeting, a celebration was held to recognize the GED graduates of the Williamson Central School District. The following students were recognized:

- Megan Butler
- Alex Daniels
- Shane DeHullu
- Andrew Lachiusa
- Durville Peterson

The Williamson Board of Education opened with an Audit Committee meeting. Kelly Dixon, Internal Claims Auditor reviewed the Internal Claims report for the period of January 1 to May 1, 2013. Ray Wager discussed the upcoming audit cycles. The board asked questions regarding the relationship between outside organizations such as the PTSA and the district. Mr. Wager advised the district to meet annually with these organizations to review the officers, insurance certificates, and planned activates for the year. This was followed by a public hearing to discuss updates to the SAVE plan.

Under Reports from District Administrators, Wendy Havens highlighted Lorie Abbott and Laurie Bischoff for their hard work compiling data for the new teacher scoring. She also reported that BOCES is scoring over 11,000 exams for 15 districts and the process has gone well. Tom Schulte reported that results from the exams are coming in and the passing rates are very good. He also reported that the middle school students did exceptionally well on their Regents exams. Doug Lauf highlighted the teachers that are a part of the regional scoring process. He has received several phone calls from BOCES directors on the professionalism of the Williamson teachers. John Fulmer highlighted the Middle School teachers that are participating in the scoring process for their flexibility. He also highlighted Kelly Slater for her diligence in monitoring deadlines and his schedule. He shared with the board a thank you letter he received from the Williamson Come-Unity Center in appreciation of the Volunteer Club’s donation of $302. Ellen Saxby reported that the UPK Graduation and 4th Grade Celebration were well attended. She expressed her appreciation to Amy Busby for all that she did at the Elementary School during the year. Amy was instrumental in performing teacher evaluations, assisting with student support and staff development. Wanda Miller highlighted the high school special education staff for the work they did to arrange test modifications for the students. She also highlighted her staff, Annette Whitmore and Lori VanAcker, for the tremendous job they do to get everything done. She commented that Lori has been an asset to the CSE office and will be moving to the high school main office in September. Gary Barno reported that the preliminary audit has taken place with positive results. Superintendent Ehresman reported that this is her last board meeting. She remarked that she cannot think of a better board of education to leave the district and encouraged them to continue to provide strong leadership with a focus on doing what is right for the students. On behalf of the board, Michael Collins presented a check to Superintendent Ehresman for Project 2017 and Beyond in her honor.

Under Board Reports several spring concerts, awards ceremonies and art shows were reviewed. Board member Caroline Jackson reported that the PTSA meeting had a larger than normal turnout. She also reported that all officer positions have been filled. Monica Fernaays and Heather Knopp will be co-vice presidents.
