JUNE 29, 2012

The June 27, 2012 meeting of the Williamson Central School District Board of Education meeting opened with an Audit Committee meeting where the Board discussed the upcoming internal and external audit cycles. This was followed by a public hearing to discuss needed repairs to parking lots in the district and the regular meeting.

Student Representative Nicholas Vitalone reported that the French Club is busy baking in preparation for the Captain and Sailors 5K that takes place on July 21 in Pultneyville. Ellen Saxby stated there was a great end to the year including the fourth grade celebration and a UPK graduation. She also commented on the two literacy training days for staff and commended the building custodial staff, especially Lynda Lonis, for their hard work. Andrew Wahl commented on how emotional the graduation was and thanked John Vitalone for his work in organizing Project Graduation for the seniors. Doug Lauf reported that 96% of seniors eligible for graduation made it through the year. He also commented on the large crowds that cheered on the buses for Project Graduation. John Fulmer stated that the eighth grade send off was positive and he highlighted the committee that organized the end of year banquet for staff. Wanda Miller shared highlights of the end of the year and acknowledged Leigh Prescott, Lona Breitkopf and Kari Miller for their work in helping a student graduate. Gary Barno highlighted Jamie Sonnevile, Terry Pulver, Yvonne Forget and Nancy Weber for their hard work. He also commended the CSE office staff for their close work with the business office. Wendy Havens commented on the literacy days and how wonderful the teachers were despite the heat and exhaustion. Superintendent Ehresman thanked Mrs. Havens for her hard work in coordinating the literacy days as well as Gary Barno and Cathie Abdunnasir for staying until the end of Project Graduation. She commented on the Annual Professional Performance Review Plan (APPR) and thanked the committee members Kristen Smucz, Anthea Perry, Tom Hollembaek, Paul Donahue, Amy Vandergrift, Ellen Saxby, Doug Lauf, John Fulmer and Wendy Havens.
